

Acceptable Use Policy

State Government Council recommended changes to §1.1.

All use of the State Data Communications Network (such as, internet logs and email) is the property of the State of Nebraska and is subject to applicable State and Federal statutes, including such as the open public records laws of the State of Nebraska as applicable. End users should not have any expectations of privacy regarding personal business conducted on the State Data Communications Network unless protected by State or Federal statute.

(State Government Council recommended changes in RED.)